

Cloud Creations by Joan Maute © Studio 2 (used with permission)

G Em A D

G Am D G
Clouds are filling the photograph, They contrast nicely with the blue.

Bm Am C D
They take up space, They form a face, They look down on me and you.

G Am D
Oh clouds are in the poems we read. The painter's brush knows them quite well.
G

Bm Am C D D7
They fascinate, they captivate But what do they really tell?

C Em
They tell of condensation evaporation
C D G G7
of highs and lows and cool and warm,
C D G Em
Of air expanding of space demanding
A D D7
They're signs of what is going on.

C D G Em
Warm moist air rises, it's not so dense
C D G G7
Vapor cooling as allowed.
C D G Em
Reaching dew point it will condense
A D
if there's enough of it we'll see a cloud.

G Am D G
Clouds are filling the photograph They contrast nicely with the blue
Bm C D G GMaj7
They take up space They form a face But what, what do they really do?